(1) The Kingdom of Bahrain has many different attractions to please tourists and visitors. For history lovers, there is the rich heritage of ancient civilizations, which date back to over 5,000 years. A good place to start with is the Bahrain National Museum where you can learn about Bahrain's rich history. In addition, a tourist can go to the Pearl Museum and learn about the history of pearl diving in Bahrain and how hardworking the old Bahraini people were.

(2) Many tourists from the West come to Bahrain in winter to enjoy the fantastic mild climate. They enjoy all kinds of water sports such as diving, swimming, sailing and water rafting. They find the beaches of Bahrain the best places to spend winter in owing to the warm nice clean water and the large number of facilities they have.

(3) Forts at Riffa, Arad and, of course, the Bahrain Fort itself are remarkable examples of old architecture. Closer to the present, historically speaking, you can visit the restored houses of Muharraq which represent Bahraini style of homes as they were during the last years. They show how clever the Bahraini builders were and how simple and pure life in the past was.

(4) Nature lovers may visit the Al Areen Wildlife Park where they will see flamingos, ostriches, zebras and camels or take a trip to the centre of the Island and gaze in wonder at the Tree of Life which has survived for hundreds of years in the middle of the desert.

(5) For modern-style shopping, there are so many big shopping malls all over Bahrain. Some of the biggest malls are, Al A'ali Shopping Complex, Seef Mall, Bahrain Mall, Dana Mall, and Country Mall. These malls have everything shoppers may dream of for a competitive price.

Action Adventures

At Action Adventures, we provide exciting holidays for sixteen- to twenty-one-year olds. Our centre is in the beautiful region of Cornwall in the south-west of England (about 350 km from London).

Cornwall is famous for its dramatic coastline and long, sandy beaches. Our holidays are fun, adventurous and safe, and there is the opportunity to meet other people and make new friends. You can do a wide range of activities including water skiing, surfing, windsurfing, sailing, climbing, and mountain biking. We have courses for all levels from beginner to advanced. So, no previous experience of the activities is necessary.

The accommodation is fairly basic but comfortable. We have a choice of self-catering rooms, caravans or camping. All the rooms have the necessary equipment for making snacks and light meals. If you don't want to cook in the evenings, you can always eat out at one of the many restaurants nearby or come along to our evening barbecue.

If you are tired in the evening you can relax in our TV and recreation room. Alternatively, we have a lively evening social programme with something for everybody seven nights a week. You can watch and listen to live bands, go bowling or take part in our competitions, quizzes and games.

Accommodation, lessons and equipment are all included in the price and there is also free transport. The only thing not included is food.

Listening 1

Listen to the conversation between Janet and Dave and complete the table with the missing information.

Janet Dave, I thought you were still in Brazil!

Dave No. I got back last week.

Janet What was the trip for? Business or pleasure?

Dave I went for carnival, and it was fantastic. Definitely the trip of a life time.

Janet Ooh! Tell me about it.

Dave Well, the flight was a bit tiring. It took 10 hours, but when I arrived I went straight to a luxury hotel in Rio de Janeiro.

Janet That sounds lovely. Tell me about the carnival. Was it as good as everyone says?

Dave It's fantastic. The parades were really spectacular. The dancers were brilliant- I don't know where they got their energy from. They danced the samba all night long. The costumes were incredible, too.

Janet Wow, I'm really jealous. How long were you there for?

Dave I went for 10 days. Carnival only lasts for 5 days, though, so after the festival was over I tried to spend the rest of my holiday relaxing on the beach.

Janet What do you mean you tried?

Dave Well, the nightlife is so good. I went to great restaurants. I also met lots of interesting people.

Janet Don't tell me you need a holiday to recover from your holiday!

Dave Yes, something like that!

Listening 2

Listen to some information about Charles Dickens and state whether the following statements are true (T) or false (F).

Charles Dickens is one of the greatest novelists in the English language. He wrote about the real world of Victorian England and many of his characters were not rich, middleclass ladies and gentlemen, but poor and hungry people.

His father was a clerk in an office. It was a good job, but he was often in debt. Charles went to school and his teachers thought he was very clever. But suddenly, when he was only eleven, his father went to prison for his debts and the family went, too. Only Charles didn't go to prison. He went to work in a factory.

When he was sixteen, he started writing for a newspaper. He visited law courts and soon he was one of the best journalists. He also wrote short stories for magazines. He never stopped writing and traveling, and he died in 1870.
